FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1885.

THE Jeffersonville Glass Works of In-iana has failed. Cheap prices offered by other companies is given as a cause. The assets and liabilities are not known.

THE Evening Post and the Times, of New York, are just now vigorpusly en-gaged in fighting the Democratic State sicket, and are doing all they can to de-feat it. A year age these same papers were doing their best to defeat the Re-publican National ticket.

GOVERNOR KNOTT has appointed Mr. J.
Soule Smith Commissioner for Kentucky to the New Orleans Exposition. Mr.
Smith is a man of energy and is one of the spiciest writers in the South. If he should see fit to accept the place Kentucky will be well represented, and her interests carefully watched.

PATRICK HARTNETT, the Cincinnati wife murderer, was executed Wednes-day morning at Columbus, O. It was one of the most sickenling and revolting executions that has ever taken place. His head was almost severed from the body by the fall, which was seven feet. Death ensued in one-half a minute. His cloth-ing was deluged with his life's blood.

ring was disigned with his life's blood.

The Democrats of New York are claiming the declination of Roswell P. Flower, et the nomination for Lieutgnant Governor, augurs well for the success of the party in the coming election. They cite the case in 1876 when Seymour declined the nomination for Governor, and Lucius Robinson was put on the ticket in his place. Robinson was petted by 33,000 anajority. This claim, however, will not hold true in all cases. The New York Democrats should remember that "this thing of politics is a decilish uncertain quantity now-a-days," and go to work in earnivest for their nominees.

This indications point strongly to a Democratic victory in Ohio, New York and Virginia at the approaching elections. In Ohio the Democrats are in excellent switter and tealing confidence of successions.

and Virginia at the approaching elections. In Ohio the Democrats are in excellent spirits, and feeling confident of success. The "bloody shirt" issue raised by Sherman, Foraker and others has re-acted, and that illustrious crowd will probably be "boist by their own petard." The nominations in New York have been received with favor by the party in that State, which augurs well for victory, while there seems to be but little doubt of Fitshugh Lee's election and the success of the party in Virginia. A victory for the Democrate in these three States in November would, in the common vernacular of the day, be a "paralyzer" to the Republican party.

emocrate of the District of Colum Laying for a Change of Officers—Co ared Applicants — Opposition to Senator Gorman's Ruis—Notes.

Washinoton, Oct. 2.—It was Missori day at the postoffice department. There were two separate delegations and three or four fellows on their own hook after postoffices. The design of the section of the isad to leave them to go to the meeting of the cabines. Inquiry has been made at the postoffice department to ascertain whether John W. McKnight, recently appointed as one of the postal card agents at Castrioton, N. Y., is the same man who was complications as a defendant in several suits for swindling. There was an impression in some quarters that the president was likely to make the district appointments but none were made. The district Democrate, while they do not vote, claim to have done a great deal of important work for the party during the last money and orators. They feel that they have already waited long enough, and that it is time that the Republican officials appointed by Presidents Gardiel and Arthur should be required to step down and out, every one of them having been offensive partisans in the strictest meaning of the
